INTUITIVE SKIN CARE
INTUITIVE SKIN CARE

Topical Nutrition Educational Event

- Have hostess invite twice as many guests as would like to attend & ask them to bring one of their personal care products along
- Host to supply: coffee, tea, water and enough face cloths for each guest to use during demo portion
- If host is a distributor :
- Have them make the "Fat Burning Smoothie" made up to serve to each attendee if not you can make ahead and place in a cooler to bring.
- Personal Inventory sheets (Ice Breakers)
- "take home" info packets for each guest; folders from office or stationary supply store. Be sure to enclose your card and put contact information on every piece of paper you hand out
- Go to www.thissteamwins.com and click on the glimpse logo for downloads to print for this package. We like to use; The dirty dozen, a comparison sheet for other products, the "Fat Burning Smoothie" recipe, skin products analyzed for ingredients chart and of course the order form.
- Have the Host set up their DVD player and TV ahead of time as each of these is different to operate (make sure to bring the glimpse DVD and set it up to start where you want it to play)
- If possible have Host bookmark their computer (laptop works best) to the Fox news clip and also to www.safecostmetics.org
- Have enough glimpse profiles for each person to fill out and supply pens for this ( www.mangosteentools.ca has glimpse tools)
- Bring along a bottle of Baby Oil and some saltine crackers for your demo
- Demo systems of each glimpse system to use to do a "hand facial"
- Host can supply theirs and you bring opposite one to show
- Bring your own Presentation books of pictures and info
- I like to bring some décor items: candles, fake (Pier One) in a glass vase, a few typical personal care products incase guests don't bring them along. Use your imagination here and have fun.
- Be prepared take orders at the end & book more events with attendee's family and friends.
